

HANDS JOINED, SIGNS UNITED, COLORS FLYING

Deaf People of Color

Portland, Oregon • June 24 - 27, 2010

It's going to be the nation's largest gathering of Deaf people of color . . . ever!

The Second National Deaf People of Color Conference will be held in June 2010 at the Oregon Conference Center and the Doubletree® Hotel-Lloyd Center in downtown Portland.

The focus will be on challenges and concerns facing Deaf people of color: African-Americans, Asian-Americans, Latinas and Latinos, American Indians, biracial, and multi-racial. It's for teachers, interpreters, ITP students, VR counselors, advocates, parents, and students—for Deaf people and CODAs of all colors.

For more information, visit the Conference Website.
Register now and save $175.00.

www.deafpeopleofcolor.org